

NEWS FROM RESONANCE 104.4fm

We are happy to let all our supporters know that Resonance104.4fm has won the Radio Academy Nations and Regions Award for London for the third year running! We've yet to take possession of the trophy, receipt of which guarantees us entry to the Sony Radio Academy Awards for their "Station of the Year" category. Maybe this year - our tenth - we will win. Thanks to everyone who has made this possible: you know who you are as you are receiving this newsletter.

ON AIR FUND RAISER

This year our annual on-air fund raiser runs from St Valentine's Day (14 February 2012) till the weekend. We've an auction of unique and wondrous items, special live events, celebrity guests, spontaneous competitions and much more. If you love Resonance104.4fm, please support us via a donation, pledge, bequest, gift or purchase from our shop. The alternative – for us to take regular on-air advertising – is something we'd prefer not to contemplate. But we urgently need funds to continue our work. Do help if you can. Thank you!
<http://resonancefm.com/news>

RSVP - SURVEY

Last autumn we had to move our aerial due to building works at the transmitter site. This week we have replaced a key component which had burnt out. We're keen to gather listener responses to assess progress. Please take a minute to fill out our web form:

<http://bit.ly/oQWpEm>

Your help would be very much appreciated.

AIRTIME CONTEST

Some of you may know that Resonance104.4fm now uses Airtime as its playout system and is helping to test drive the software in liaison with developers Sourcefabric. If you make music, why not enter the free Airtime Pro Artist of the Year contest in the next week and get on air?

<http://www.sourcefabric.org/en/community/blog/934>

They intend to put ten winning tracks in every version of their radio service Airtime Pro, including their online demo. "What does this mean? If it's your track, you get heard by a lot of people (150,000 visitors to the Airtime site last year) plus you get to feel good because Airtime is open source and non-profit." Do it.

ALCOHOL COMPETITION

This is even easier than the above. The Alcohol label, whose stock has graced the Resonance FM shop for some years is relaunching with a new website and new product. You can be in with a chance of winning all fifteen Alcohol releases, including the fantastic new debut LP by Dorset avant-rock band Kinnie The Explorer, just by going to

<http://www.facebook.com/?ref=logo#!/alcohollabel/posts/365548776793419>

RESONANCE RADIO ORCHESTRA

Our "in house" experimental ensemble now has its own dedicated website with audio, news, and all the unusual.

<http://resonanceradioorchestra.wordpress.com/>

A date for your diary is its performance of a new work by Fari Bradley at the V&A in London as part of "Night of Norouz" on Friday 30 March 2012 at 6.30pm. Entrance is free.

<http://www.vam.ac.uk/whatson/event/1566/friday-late-night-of-norouz-2705/>

MARCEL OPEN CALL

Resonance104.4fm is proud to be part of the Marcel network and it is in that capacity that we're urging artists to participate in the "Imagery Dimension" open call for art+innovation creators:

<http://www.imagerydimension.com/imagery-dimension-festival/>

You can apply online to this new initiative of VideoArtWorld, supported by professionals in the field, and with the aim to expand new strategies that support innovative creators. Marcel hopes that this endeavour "will be one more step towards a sustainable economy for innovative creations."

NEW MUSIC AT CAFE OTO

Resonance104.4fm is media partner of these gigs at London's hippest new music venue Wednesday 8 February 2012 at 8pm. £6 advance / £7 on the door.

Black Top #1: Pat Thomas, Orphy Robinson, Shabaka Hutchings + guests

Friday 17 & Saturday 18 February 2012 at 8pm. £6 advance / £7 on the door.

Jason Kahn, Alfredo Costa Monteiro & Juan Matos Capote + Phil Julian and Matt Davis

Tuesday 21 February 2012 at 8pm. £8 advance / £10 on the door.

Glenn Jones

Cafe Oto, 18 - 22 Ashwin Street, E8 3DL

www.cafeoto.co.uk

NEW MUSIC AT THE VORTEX

Resonance104.4fm is media partner of these gigs at London's funkier new music venue Wednesday 1 February 2012 at 8pm. £9.

Gannets (featuring Fyfe Dangerfield) + Trio Riot

Saturday 18th February 2012 at 8pm. £12.

Partager Festival: Evan Parker & Benoît Delbecq + Matthew Bourne & Laurent Dehors

The Vortex, 11 Gillett Square, London N16 8AZ

www.vortexjazz.co.uk

SUPERSONIX

Resonance104.4fm is media partner of this major international event, comprising sound art installations, conference, concerts – and radio - in London's busiest cultural high-street:

www.exhibitionroad.com/supersonix

CONGRATULATIONS

Resonance104.4fm was happy to sponsor the inaugural Artrocker Awards, sponsoring its Artwork of the Year category. This was won by Boxes, for their Boxes EP, designed in conjunction with Static.

<http://www.artrocker.tv>

More soon...

ENDS